Biggest Investment & Smallest

Risk: We all know that investment bankers are all too ready to risk other peoples money but when you have £12bn to play with you have to know which are the safest bets. Ruffer LLP, under the oversight of its founding namesake, seems to be more than riding out the downturn while maintaining a healthy return for its clients.

Is there such a thing as a Christian ethic to investment and is that the key to Ruffer's golden reputation and record? And why is his life all about to change?

Jonathan Ruffer is about as far as you can get from the manufactured, marketing-led absolute returns manager. In the most serious financial circles he is known as a maverick 'risk averse risk taker' while his own self assessment of his financial split personality is that of two wrestling orangutans! He describes his salary as "an absurdity" and yet has no mobile telephone or email at home. The company he founded and still leads is regarded as safe and successful in its management of almost £12bn. The Spectator calls him, "a serious Christian," and maybe his recent donation of £15m to the Church of England to save some of its art treasures and his continuous generosity to other Christian charities goes some way to proving that.

The M<sub>2</sub>B evening: 06/10/11 6.30pm - 9.45pm
