

Archdeacon of Leeds Appointment

Person Specification

The successful candidate will:

- have a commitment to the renewal of the church for mission;
- have had parochial experience;
- be confident and engaging in the leadership of worship;
- have proven collaborative skills and an experience of working in a team;
- have an enabling style of leadership;
- be a good communicator;
- have a proven record of managing change;
- have good personal and pastoral skills;
- have proven management and administrative skills;
- have the capacity to think and work strategically;
- have the ability to prioritise workload;
- have experience of urban ministry , including awareness of issues such as interfaith dialogue, the relationship of the urban and suburban, the political and economic context;
- have a proven track record in fostering and sustaining ecumenical working;
- have the ability to work across different traditions within the Church of England