

What is the Anglican Covenant for and why should it be opposed?

Changing Attitude and Modern Church in Ripon and Leeds warmly invite you to a meeting about the Anglican Covenant

Monday 16 January 2012 at 7.30pm

at St Andrews Church, Butcher Hill, Leeds, LS16 5BG

The Revd Jonathan Clatworthy, general secretary of Modern Church will address the meeting, explaining why the Anglican Covenant should be opposed.

This meeting will be of particular interest to members of deanery synods and diocesan synod as they prepare to vote on this important matter.
