

Share the Light 2011

A special mission resource for Advent, Christmas and beyond

Your church community is invited to join with Christians across the country taking time this Advent and Christmas to connect with people in mission around the world who are Sharing the Light of Jesus.

Go to www.cms-uk.org/advent to download the Share the Light resources and learn more about adding a little "mission spice" to your Christmas party this year.

Share the Light includes resources for churches and small groups, including:

- A four-week Advent course
- Candlelit carol service outline
- All age and nativity service outline
- Outreach ideas and follow-up materials
- The Invisible Guest: A special, fun "mission twist" that you can easily incorporate into your Christmas party or event — a simple way to show your support for people in mission who cannot be home this Christmas
