

AJAR

Asylum Justice & Release

Skillshare and training day

for people who want to support asylum seekers in detention, destitution, and danger of deportation.

Sunday July 17th 12.30-17:00

All Hallows Church, Regent Terrace, LS6

www.allhallowsleeds.org.uk

Workshops include:-

- being alongside and offering friendship
- offering hospitality
- advocacy and working with lawyers
- advocacy and housing
- understanding trauma
- standing bail

with input from Immigration lawyer John Donkersley, and SOLACE (counselling and psychotherapy service)

AJAR has grown from the experience of bail and support of a group at All Hallows, and includes people who have sought asylum and know what the needs are. We are now seeking to involve more people from all faiths and none as there are many more people in detention and in need of support. Please consider joining us, whatever your experience! There are all kinds of roles and levels of commitment needed.

Lunch provided

This event is for people of all faiths and those of humanitarian conviction. It is free (donations welcome). Booking essential to ensure enough lunch! To register please contact AJAR at ajarleeds@gmail.com or phone / text us on 07970 749329
